1. SCOPE AND TRANSMISSION OF INFORMATION

These terms and conditions apply to all contracts signed with the Global Humanistic University. By registering for a study program, the consumer (hereinafter referred to as the student) accepts these terms and conditions and is obliged to abide by them. By signing the enrollment form, the student agrees explicitly to all information relating to compliance and status with the Global Humanistic University and its study programs. The student also agrees to email exchanges with Global Humanistic University.

2. ENROLLMENT

Enrollment in a study program must be completed via the GHU website. The admission to a program can only be confirmed after an analysis of the documents submitted for the admission requirements. If all admission requirements are met, the Global Humanistic University will approve registration by means of an official confirmation. The contract between the student and Global Humanistic University comes into force once all the requirements are fulfilled and the enrollment confirmation is sent. It should be noted that enrollment in a program and/or course is always binding.

3. PAYMENT

All prices indicated on the website are expressed in dollars. Tuition payment can be completed by payment form or direct debit. All documentation and material will only be sent to the student when receipt of first payment is confirmed. Compliance with payment terms and payment dates is an essential condition for participation in the programs and graduation. The Global Humanistic University reserves the right to block students who fail to comply with their payment obligations. Access to documents will be withheld and there will be no further support and it will no longer be possible to apply for exams as long as a payment is outstanding. Failure to comply after the first failed reminder may result in an additional annual interest of 4% on the referenced amount and in legal/judicial action.

4. COPYRIGHT

Remains - up until the full settlement of all payments for the products delivered (e.g. access to the online campus, documents, scripts, etc.) - of the Global Humanistic University. The transfer to third parties in copy or original is forbidden.

5. REVOCATION

Cancellation/revocation of enrollment for a study program can be accomplished by the student within seven days from the date of the student's application, without giving specific reasons. To exercise this right, the student must email office@ghu.edu.cw along with a statement confirming the decision to withdraw from the relevant program. After these seven days the student cannot cancel the enrollment and all agreed fees of the complete program must be paid in full.

6. TERMINATION CONTRACT AND ENROLLMENT

After the expiration of the right to withdrawal in accordance with point 5 of these terms and conditions, the curriculum may not be terminated in any way.

7. CURRICULUM

The study programs referenced in these terms and conditions general are the programs currently listed on the Global Humanistic University's homepage.

8. STUDENT CANCELLATION AND DISMISSAL

The Global Humanistic University reserves the right to dismiss a student due to academic misconduct (plagiarism, repeated failure to comply with regulations, etc.). The student agrees to make an official statement regarding information contained in all his/her documents. Incorrect information leads to an immediate cancellation of enrollment. Student is informed that all work is reviewed using software to control plagiarism. Plagiarism is a motive for cancellation. After cancellation of enrollment, remaining tuition fees must be paid in full. In the case of less severe forms of plagiarism and/or other academic misconduct, there is the possibility of a re-examination (USD 100, - / 60, -), and after several cases an additional fee of USD 300, - will be charged for academic misconduct before registration for new exams is possible. Plagiarism may be a motive for legal action by the GHU.

In addition, the Global Humanistic University reserves the right to take additional legal action in the event of cancellation of registration. If the student has already graduated, determining plagiarism at a later date will result in the student losing his degree.

9. RANGE

The range of services for the study programs are provided by the Global Humanistic University and currently include the provision of lectures and additional documents; online support; sending, receiving, and evaluation of reviews; advice for students during the program; graduation ceremonies for the students; preparing and sending certificates, academic examinations and the final diplomas. New and additional services may be provided by the Global Humanistic University and used by students. The Global Humanistic University reserves the right to apply additional costs or fees to make use of the new services offered. Tuition fees do not include additional costs incurred such as PC hardware and software, legal texts, reference books, telephone costs, stamps and transmission of data and reassessment fees, and the costs of seminars and exams, which are not conducted by the Global Humanistic University.

10. DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES, DIPLOMAS AND CERTIFICATES

In principle, the certificate and the final diploma (plus a copy if the student applies for a diploma before the formal presentation during the graduation ceremony) are included in the price. If the originals are lost additional copies are USD 300, 00.

11. EXAMS

The disclosure of information (examinations, and especially examination questions) to third parties, is expressly prohibited. This constitutes serious misconduct and will be punishable by a fine corresponding to the seriousness of the offence that could go up to 5.000, - and/or cancellation of registration.

12. STUDIES

The Global Humanistic University reserves the right to replace professor and lecturers and postpone the transfer of program materials within a reasonable time frame. In this case, the student does not have the right to extraordinary termination of the program (tuition cancellation), nor to the reduction of tuition fees.

13. MAXIMUM STUDY DURATION

The maximum duration for doctoral programs is seven years starting with the date of registration. Within these seven years, all necessary examinations and work must be completed positively. If the time limit is exceeded, the exclusion is automatic. There is no tuition fee refund. For other study programs the student will find additional information on duration on the GHU website. The Global Humanistic University has the right to change the duration of programs.

14. COPYRIGHT PROTECTION

The student acknowledges that the content provided in the online platform is protected by copyright. Any duplication, dissemination, or any other use of this content beyond the student's own private use is expressly prohibited and can be a motive for legal action.

15. PRIVACY

By registering, the student accepts the processing of personal data in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act for study purposes and processing exams, as well as the sending of information in relation to vocational training until new notice. Data will be treated confidentially and under no circumstances will data be transmitted to third parties.

16. CHANGES TO TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Changes to the Global Humanistic University terms and conditions, along with the corresponding entry in force of these, will be enacted by the publication in an appropriate manner on www.ghu.edu.cw. It is expressly stated that the decisions of the Global Humanistic University are autonomous and that, regardless of whether programs or terms and conditions are affected, students do not have the right of termination and/or claim for damages in this case.

17. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Supplementary or altered agreements must be in accordance with the covenant of both parties and in written form.

18. APPLICABLE JURISDICTION AND LAW

The laws and the local jurisdiction of the courts in Willemstad, Curacao apply to all matters concerning the Global Humanistic University.
